Join Maestro James Villani and the Manassas Symphony for the opening concert of the 2024-25 season and welcome the colorful and captivating playing of the Marcolivia Duo. The award-winning violin and viola duo of Olivia Hajioff and Marc Ramirez have had celebrated performances at distinguished venues worldwide. They are described as "compelling" and "intensely beautiful" by The Washington Post. The Duo is playing the evocative Romantic Fantasy for Violin, Viola, and Orchestra by Australian composer Arthur Benjamin and Antonio Vivaldi's Concerto for 2 Violins in A minor. The MSO will complete the program with Pyotr Tchaikovsky's Marche Slav and Antonín Dvořák's masterwork Symphony No. 9, "From the New World."

SATURDAY | DECEMBER 14, 2024 | 3:30 PM

Family Concert: Reveries

It's another unforgettable family concert experience for the kids (they're always free!) as the MSO explores a wintry dreamscape to usher in the holiday season. Kettle Run High School senior trumpet player Levi Pardy joins the orchestra as a featured soloist on Leroy Anderson's Trumpeter's Lullaby. The smallest in the audience will relate to Goodnight Moon, composed by American Eric Whitacre and sung by an audience favorite, soprano Christine Maxted. The concert closes as always with the kids' favorite - MSO's expanded exclusive colorful Music and Light Show Spectacular!

SATURDAY | MARCH 1, 2025 | 7:30 PM

Expressions

Violinist Leonid Sushansky, acclaimed by the Washington Post for his "Gorgeous tone [and] passionate intensity," and called "Astonishing" by The New York Times, joins Maestro Villani and the MSO for Felix Mendelssohn's highly-regarded and expressive Violin Concerto in E minor. At 15, Sushansky debuted with the New York Philharmonic at the invitation of conductor Zubin Mehta, and he has performed for worldwide audiences. He is the Artistic Director of the National Chamber Ensemble and continues his distinguished career as a performer and teacher. The MSO concludes the concert with Ottorino Respighi's gorgeous and picturesque tone poem, Pines of Rome.

SATURDAY | MAY 3, 2025 | 7:30 PM

Fantasies

World touring concert pianist Catherine Lan, praised by Palm Beach Daily News as a pianist who "has a fluent technique, sensitive musicianship and a probing intellect", is the MSO's guest artist, partnering on Johannes Brahms' grand and expressive Piano Concerto No. 1. Dr. Lan has concertized across the US, Europe, and Asia, and appeared at prestigious venues such as the Carnegie Hall in New York, Victoria Hall in Singapore, Kadriorg Palace in Tallinn (Estonia). A suite of brilliant music from French composer Georges Bizet's masterpiece opera Carmen concludes the concert and the MSO's season.
